The Audience

Primary Audience
(3km radius of The Well & Toronto CMA)

Urban Young & Social

This audience comprises young professionals, social and tech-savvy individuals, diverse urban dwellers, and culturally engaged residents who enjoy dining out, entertainment, and community activities.

This diverse, pre-family segment is early in their careers and drawn to an urban lifestyle. Style, food, and social experiences matter to them, and shopping is a favoured leisure activity—especially at premium clothing and shoe stores. They're highly active, with strong interest in fitness and health clubs. In their free time, they enjoy creative hobbies like crafts, gourmet cooking, and photography.

Wellington Market

With over 50 merchants to choose from, Wellington Market is an evolved market hall that offers unique culinary experiences in a single elevated space.

The 70,000 sq. ft. market hall features a range of diverse offerings from the best local operators and other first-to-market options for diners to experience, including two Michelin Guide recommended restauranteurs. Fresh items, prepared food, and elevated fast casual options bring a gourmet experience to The Well.

Meals are made to grab-and-go, but Wellington Market offers indoor and outdoor seating options for those that want to savour their meals in the space. The market also hosts a bar that gives visitors the option to sit, sip and stroll. Known as The Pier, this central bar extends the liquor license across the space and operates extended hours into the evenings.

The 70,000 sq. ft space also includes The Wellington Event Venue. A 5,000 sq. ft hub for community engagement, culinary workshops, and corporate meetings.
